

The public, the nation and democracy is not/will not be served by the corporate/private interest consolidation of the media. It is corrupt to try to sell it any other way. I earnestly urge a vote against further consolidation. In fact, I think the public would be better educated by a return to the Fair Doctrine concept.